

Dr. Bernard Slingerland, is currently the Coordinator of Evangelism for the MAC Region (Mexico and Central America), while serving as a missionary in the Church of the Nazarene since 1995. He and his wife, Rhonda, and two Daughters, Hannah and Abby live near the city of San Jose Costa Rica. He facilitates evangelism/church health projects for 37 districts and in seven countries, such as: NCS Refocus Project, organization of new districts, church planting, material development, and other related ministry projects.