Dr. Keith Wright has been associated with New Church Specialties since its beginning days. As the founding Chairman of the Board, he was highly instrumental in the development and spread of the NCS vision with early NCS partners. He was Superintendent of the largest judicatory (district) in the Nazarene denomination for 15 years. During this period of time, he led the district to launch over 30 new churches, many of them becoming very large and healthy. When he retired from the superintendency, the average attendance of these churches was over 3,500 people.

Dr. Wright grew up in Idaho, graduated from Northwest Nazarene University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has served very successful pastorates in Oklahoma, Florida, Georgia and Missouri. He has also held multiple leadership roles throughout the Church of the Nazarene. In 2005, he officially joined the Senior Consulting Staff of NCS and devotes a large part of his time in serving the Oregon Pacific District. He and his wife Liz have two grown daughters and now make their home in Portland, Oregon.
